

30-Day Plan to Improve Communication Skills

◇ Week 1: Foundation (Listening & Speaking Basics)

Day 1–2: Record a 2-minute self-introduction in English.

Day 3–4: Read an English newspaper article aloud. Focus on pronunciation.

Day 5–6: Watch a short English video (TED Talk, News) with subtitles. Repeat after the speaker.

Day 7: Speak about your day (3–5 mins) and record it.

👉 Goal: Get comfortable speaking and listening daily.

◇ Week 2: Vocabulary & Fluency

Day 8–9: Learn 5 new words daily. Use them in sentences.

Day 10–11: Speak on a random topic (hobby, college, news) for 3 mins.

Day 12–13: Watch a movie/web series (English) with subtitles.

Day 14: Call a friend/classmate and talk in English only.

👉 Goal: Increase vocabulary + reduce hesitation.

◇ Week 3: Practical Application

Day 15–16: Practice “Mirror Speaking” – talk for 5 mins about your dream job.

Day 17–18: Listen to English podcasts (15 mins). Write 5 sentences summarizing them.

Day 19–20: Do a mock interview (record Q&A like “Tell me about yourself”).

Day 21: Join an online English conversation group or Telegram/Discord channel.

👉 Goal: Start applying communication skills in real contexts.

◇ Week 4: Confidence & Professional Communication

Day 22–23: Write and read aloud a small email or professional message.

Day 24–25: Practice storytelling (tell a childhood story in English).

Day 26–27: Debate with a friend (e.g., “Online vs Offline Shopping”).

Day 28: Watch your old recordings (Day 1 & Day 7) and compare progress.

Day 29: Give a 5-minute presentation (recorded) on any topic you love.

Day 30: Reflect → What improved? Where do you still struggle? Set next month’s goal.

👉 Goal: Build confidence for interviews, group discussions, and workplace communication.

☑ After 30 days, you’ll see a big improvement in fluency, vocabulary, and confidence.

Do you want me to also prepare a list of daily topics (like self-intro, hobbies, goals, travel, etc.) so you never get stuck thinking “What should I talk about today?”
